

BEATRICE ANDERSON TAYLOR

Lehi Centennial History 1850-1950

Beatrice Anderson Taylor was born June 5, 1898, a descendant of Daniel S. Thomas and Martha Paine, grand-daughter of John Woodhouse and Emma Thomas and daughter of Brigham J. Anderson and Rachel Woodhouse.

She was reared in Lehi and graduated from the Lehi High School and attended the University of Utah.

She was married to Stanley M. Taylor June 8, 1921, and is the mother of four children: Stanley Maurine Jr., JoAnne, Sandra, and Michel Kay.

She has held various offices in the Athenian Literary Club and is a member of the Chantante Chorus. She is secretary of Federated Clubs of the Timpanogos First District. For many years she has been chiefly responsible for the living pictures at the community Christmas pageant. She is on the committee for the Lehi Centennial Pageant. She has served in many offices of the Auxiliary to the Utah Pharmaceutical Association, and also the American Legion Auxiliary.

In a church capacity she was play leader of Lehi Stake Primary, then president of the board several years. She was First Counselor in the Young Women's Mutual Improvement Association in Morgan, Utah and in the Lehi First Ward; she served as secretary in the Relief Society and teacher in the Mutual, Primary, and Sunday School, and Relief Society. She attended extension classes at the Brigham Young University from 1942 to 1946.
